

by Paul Rubio
February 15, 2018

Nothing beats the overwater bungalow when it comes to oceanside accommodation. Get ready for pangs of extreme wanderlust.

This gallery was originally published in 2016 and has been updated with new information.

9/9

Banana Island Resort Doha by Anantara, Qatar

On a private island twenty minutes by boat from the city of Doha, this resort houses the Persian Gulf's own interpretation of overwater extravagance—eleven Maldivian-inspired bungalows with a twist. The two- and three-bedroom units (beginning at 2,500 square feet) are accented with ornate Arabian design, and equipped with every modern amenity imaginable, including a private, full-sized, cantilevered swimming pool.

Courtesy Banana Island Resort Doha by Anantara